Dear Mrs. Billingsley:

I take pleasure in thanking you and Mr. Allen Cullum for a candid and wide-ranging discussion of the corporate structure and operations of the Dallas Market Center and the TC Design and Construction Company. Your frank comments on corporate decisionmaking and the selection, training and motivation of personnel were particularly beneficial to the Seminar participants in their preparations for assuming greater responsibilities. I would be remiss in not mentioning their appreciation for the tour of Market Center facilities and the fine luncheon.

Sincerely,
